Notice to CTA Job Applicants

It is illegal for the CTA to hire a person who is not permitted to work in the United States. It is also illegal for the CTA to continue employing a person who was properly hired by CTA after November 6, 1986 when CTA learns that the person is no longer permitted to work in the United States.

An applicant is not required to disclose sealed or expunged records of arrest or convictions. Additionally, CTA may not ask if an applicant has had records expunged or convictions pardoned.

If you are hired by the CTA, you must, within two business days of your notification of hire, bring original documents to the Human Resources Department which proves both your identity and employment eligibility.
